

Ormit Talent's greenhouse

Bert Bleyen

Head of Talent Development //
Gardener

Koen De Boodt

Business Development

An De Bondt

Head of Traineeships //
Gardener

The greenhouse

It's a place for growing

A secure base with optimal conditions for personal growth, with others to trust. Because growing can be tough, at times. It takes a bit of nudging, lots of curiosity, even more earnest feedback and all the Braveheart you can muster.

Why Ormit Talent's greenhouse?

Your employees know what they stand for. They propagate this to the rest of your organisation.

Your employees know their strengths and pitfalls, which is important to function well as a team. They know how to get the best out of everyone.

Invest in your people and let your talent and your organisation grow

Strong (highly competent people) are the foundation of a strong organisation. They make sure your organisation achieves better results.

The experience creates a network. More engaged employees take better care of your customers and your organisation.

Track 1: Manage your own career & life

Who are you? What are your goals?

How do you take ownership of your own career and life?

How do you set goals for yourself, your team and your organisation and how efficient and effective are you to obtain those goals?

Track 1: Be the director of your own career and life

Track 2: The future proof people manager

How do you know your co-workers? What energizes them? What guidance do they need to obtain their goals, growth and self-satisfaction?

What is your personal leadership style and what's the effect on others?

Track 2: The future proof people manager

ormit talent

the special ones.

A woman with blonde hair, wearing a light pink dress and white shoes, is climbing a blue corrugated metal fence. She is seen from behind, with her arms and legs extended over the top of the fence. The background shows some greenery and a clear sky.

Want to know more?

koen.de.boodt@ormittalent.be

0473 56 42 92